Student organization experience

OVERVIEW

An applied student-organization experience focused on property valuation and investment underwriting using real market information and financial assumptions.

EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Built property-valuation models to evaluate potential real estate opportunities.
- Underwrote potential investments using market data, comparable properties, and financial-performance assumptions.
- Connected financial analysis with the practical factors that shape an investment decision.

PROFESSIONAL TAKEAWAY

The experience sharpened my ability to organize market evidence, test assumptions, and translate financial analysis into a clear investment perspective.
